

Pinocchio

An opera performed by the OPERA THEATRE OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA

Pinocchio starts out as a purely free, independent, impersonal spirit, but he has a lot of learning to do before he can become a real boy. The opera is based on Pinocchio written by Carlo Collodi with music from Gioacchino Rossini (composer of The Barber of Seville). Rossini's songs were adapted for this opera by Carl Zytowski, University of California at Santa Barbara. Pinocchio is about growing up and parental love.

“Who understands the beauty of Pinocchio understands Italy.”
